Gardens, Epe

Many seek the treasure
but how many would go
all out for it?

Treasure Gardens, Epe is a world class development in the serene town of Poka, Epe, Lagos Nigeria. Treasure Gardens has set itself a high benchmark of affordability, accessibility and fast appreciation value in such a short while, and tastefully designed to give a world-class experience.

Treasure Gardens is directly behind the popular ATLANTIC HALL SCHOOLS, EPE LAGOS STATE.

Epe , Lagos State, southwestern Nigeria; lies on the north bank of the coastal Lagos Lagoon and has road connections to Ijebu-Ode and Ikorodu.

Modern Epe is a collecting point for the export of fish, cassava (manioc), corn (maize), green vegetables, coconuts, cocoa, palm produce, rubber, and firewood to Lagos. Epe is best known for its construction of the motorized, shallow-draft barges that navigate the coastal lagoons. Fishing is the major occupation. The town is served by secondary schools, several hospitals, and a health office. As at the last census in 2006 in the local government area, the population was 181,409.
